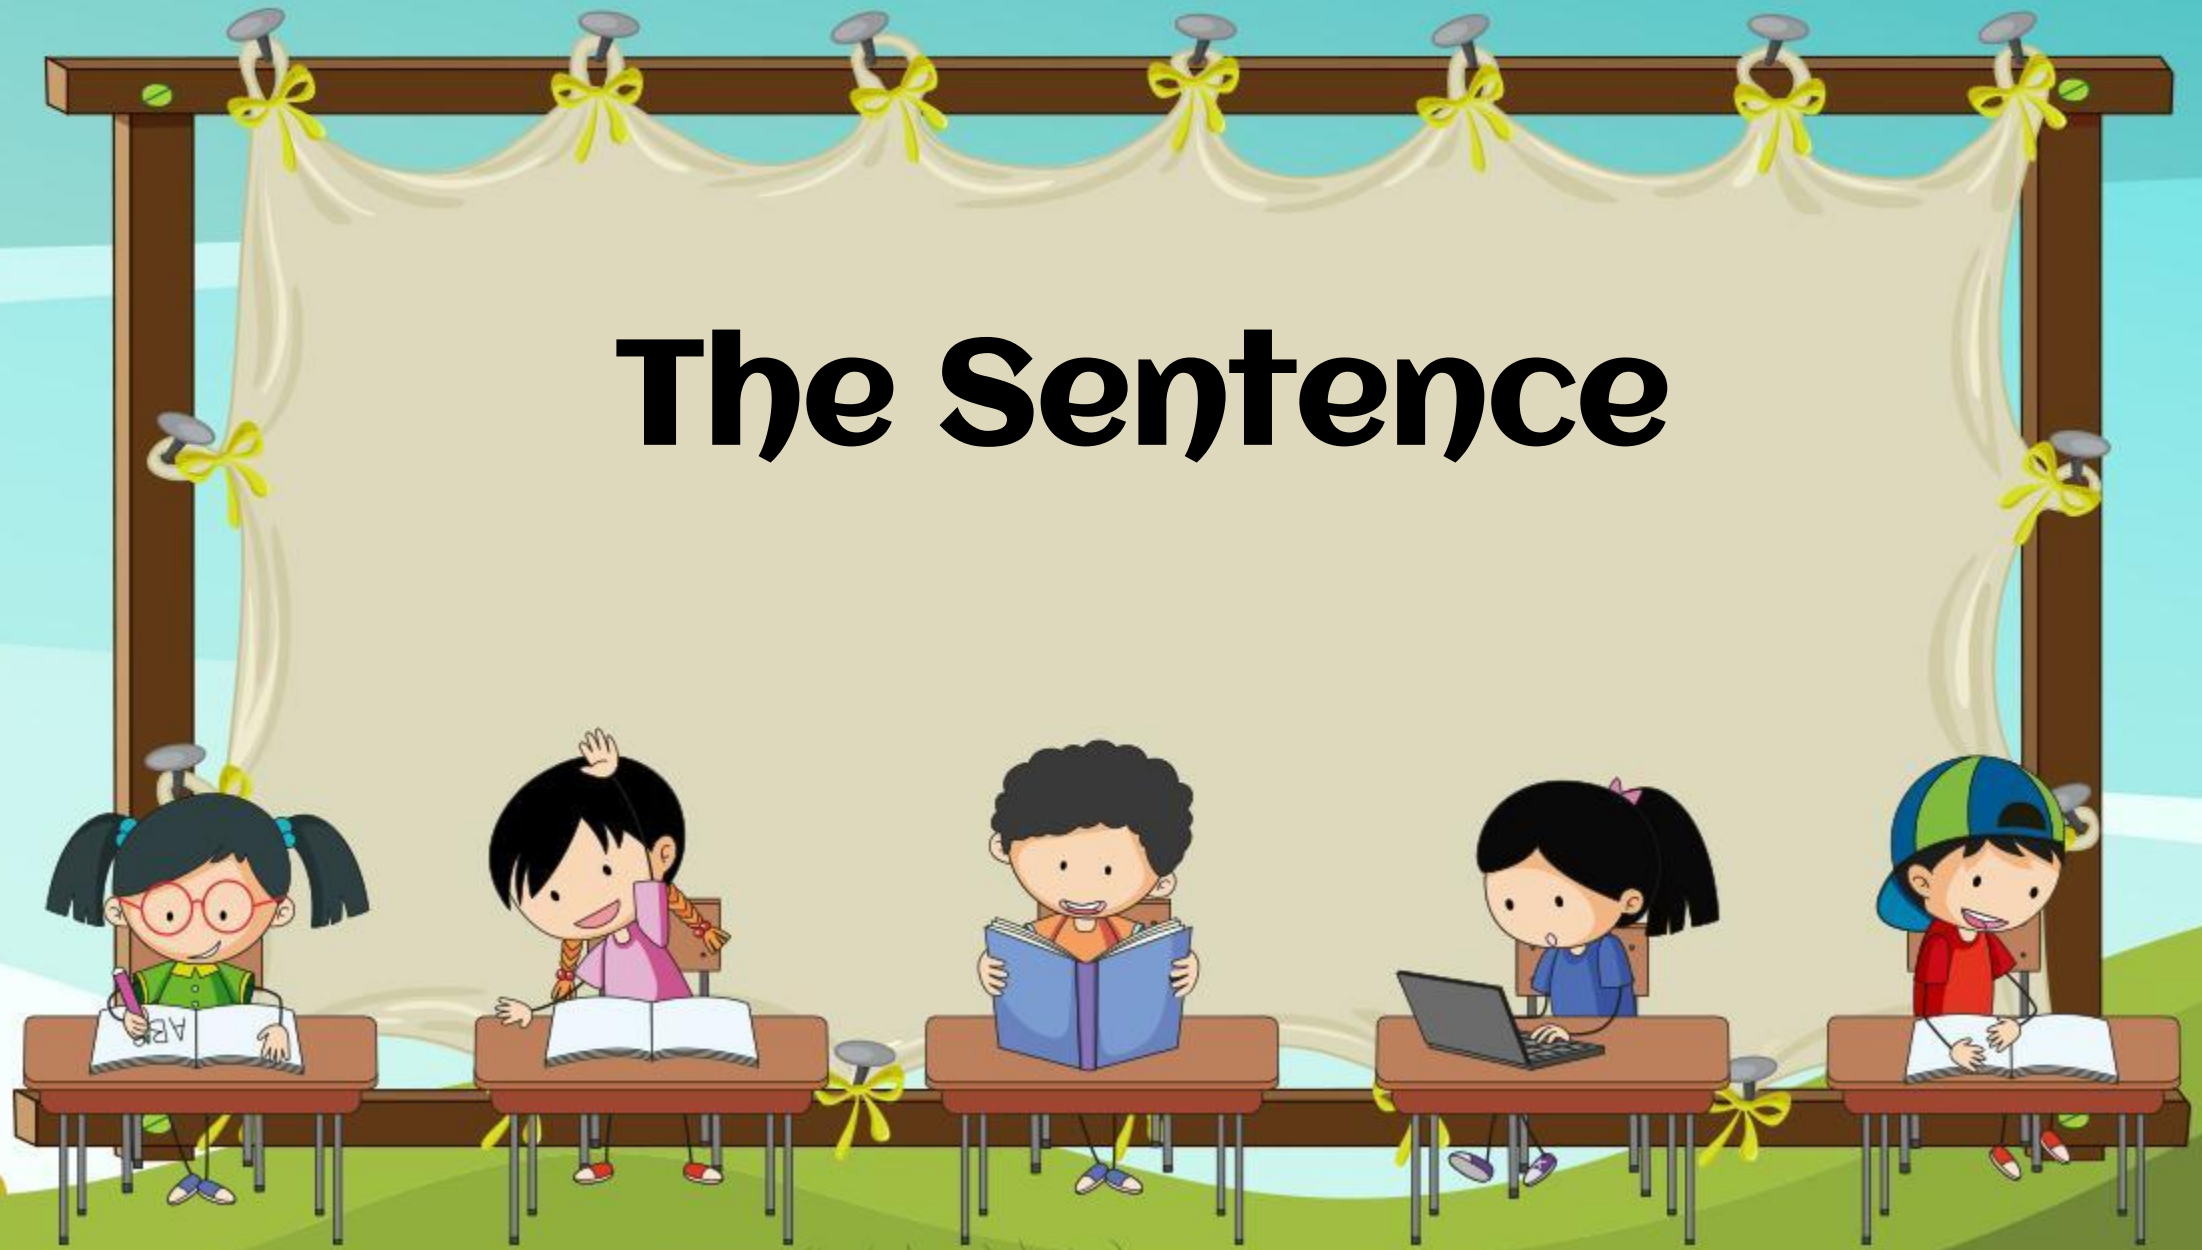
The Sentence



Capital Letter and Full Stop

A group of words that makes complete sense is called a sentence.

Now, read these sentences.

New Delhi is the capital of India.

I like pineapples.

Arun loves to read.

Hari is my friend.

Notice the capital letters in the words given in the sentences.

Notice the dot at the end of the sentences.

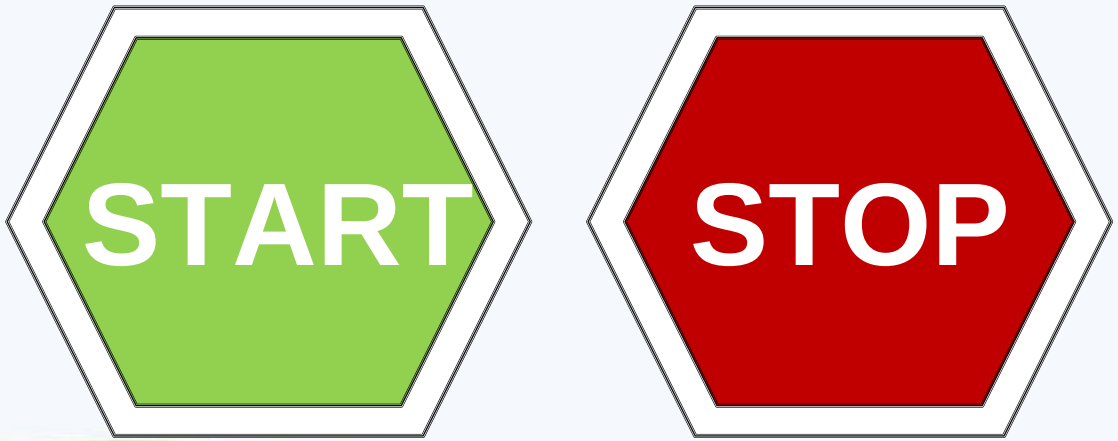
Capital Letter and Full Stop

- A sentence begins with a capital letter and most times ends with a full stop.
- Special names of people or places begin with a capital letter.

  (Example: Neha, India)
- ‘I’ while referring to myself will always be capital.
- When a sentence ends, we put a dot to show that the sentence has ended. It is a full stop. (.)



Test Yourself

Rewrite these sentences. Use capital letters and full stops at the right places.

1. he is my friend
2. we are going home
3. my dog likes tomatoes
4. we must eat fresh food
5. i like to swim

Your Turn To Try

a. Circle the capital letters in the names.
b. Put a full stop at the end of each sentence.

Jack and Jill went up the hill

Mary had a little lamb

Pussy cat went to London

Brer Rabbit ate carrots

Little Johnny went to town on a pony

Little Miss Muffet sat on grass

Think and answer

Rewrite the sentences using capital letters in the appropriate words.

1. simha was a strong lion.
2. mogli grew up in the jungle.
3. i went with my friend, gita to the market.
4. i live in india. my aunt lives in canada.
5. grandma went to meet kamala.

