Plural Pronouns

Let's Play

Read these sentences.

Nitin: These are my friends. They like to play football.

Hema: Anuj and Jai , you can play football with Nitin.

Nitin, can you call Smita? We will play in the park.

Nitin: Sure!

- Words like they, we and you are used in the place of plural nouns.
- These are called plural pronouns.

macmillan education

Fill in the blanks with we, they or you.

1. Neeti and I love reading. _____ will open a small library together.
2. Ken's family loves dogs. _____ have three pets in their house.
3. My sister, brother and I will watch a film on Friday. _____ love watching films.
4. _____ are looking very good today. Is that a new dress?
5. _____ should join our school cricket team.

