

Has, Have and Had

In the classroom

Teacher	I have a duster in my hand. What do you have in your hand, Kavi?
Kavi	I have a pencil in my hand.
Teacher	Who has a ruler and an extra pencil?
Bonny	I have a ruler. I had an extra pencil, but it broke.
Nina	Annie has an extra pencil in her pencil box.

Remember

Has and have are used to show an action which is happening now.

Had is used to show an action which happened in the past.

We use has and had when we speak about one person or a thing.

- She has …
- He has …
- I have …
- Annie has …

Remember

We use have for I, you, we and they, or when we speak about more than one person or thing.

- I have …
- You have …
- The children have …
- The dogs have …

Use have, had or has to complete these sentences.

1. I _____ a shower every day.
2. Ali _____ a younger brother.
3. They _____ gone to the market.
4. Who _____ left the books on the table yesterday?
5. She _____ not come to school today.
