Using

is, am, are

Read and Learn

Read these sentences.

- I am Madhavi. I am a student.
- Nina is my friend. She is a very nice girl.
- Bina and Madhavi are sisters.
- They are both Nina's friends.

REMEMBER

We use:

- ‘am’ with I
- ‘is’ with singular naming word (Nina) and pronouns - he, she and it
- are with plural naming words (Bina and Madhavi) and pronouns - we, they and you

REMEMBER

- We use is for one naming word.
- We use are for many naming words.
- We use am for ‘I’.

macmillan education

Use is, am or are to complete these sentences.

1. I _____ very happy.
2. We _____ not at home.
3. Dogs _____ great pets.
4. She _____ my grandmother.
5. They _____ at the bakery.
6. You _____ very kind.