Possessive Naming Words

USE AND FORMATION

We use possessive naming words to show ownership or possession.

To form a possessive naming word, we add the apostrophe (’) and -s to the singular and plural naming words that do not end with -s.

Example: Ria’s toy, children’s clothes

Example in sentences:

The old man’s house is on the hill.

Diya’s pencil is in the box.

Harpreet’s bicycle is outside.
