Question Words

Question Words

Look at the questions. How do they begin?

What is in the jar?

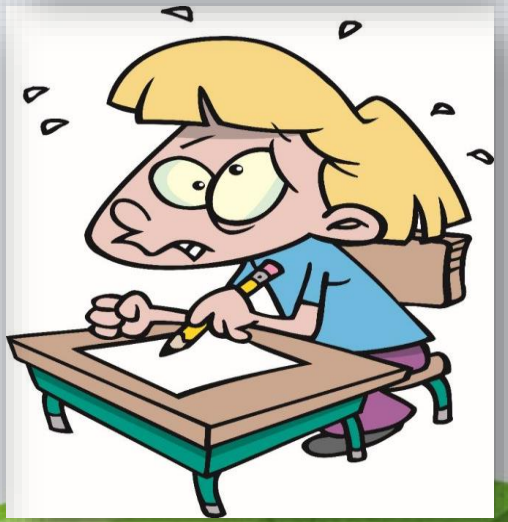
Do you like eating it?

Is Rahul still having his breakfast?

Why are you sweating so much?

Have you finished your homework?

Where did Meeta and Bunny go?



Question Words

The sentences you read are questions which ask for information.

- A question always begins with a question word.
- A question always ends with a question mark(?).

Look at the set of question words on the left.

How many of these do you know?

What	Are
When	Was
Which	Were
Where	Do
Why	Does
Who	Did
How	Is
Whose	Am
Has	Have

Your Turn to Try

Look at some more questions. Ask these questions. Practise them with your partner.

- What is your name?
- Where do you live?
- When do you go to school?
- Why do you carry an umbrella every day?
- Who drops you to school?
- How do you return from school?
- Which books do you like?

Try and Learn

Write the correct question word.

_____ time is it now?

_____ is holding your hand?

_____ is my bag?

_____ will you return from school?

_____ did you drop my book?

_____ is your lunch box, this or that?

