

Me, You, Us, Him, Her, Them, It

Fill in the blanks with me, us, it or you appropriately.

1. Do _____ want to come out with our family?
2. We are going for a movie. Is she accompanying _____?
3. She told _____ that I was talking too much.
4. _____ are a dishonest person.
5. The boss asked _____ for our opinions.
6. My friend told _____ that the red tie looks good on me.
7. _____ should not have fought with him.
8. _____ was the right thing to do.
9. The CEO said that _____ was a difficult situation to handle.
10. She has a softer attitude toward _____. I have been her student for many years.

Answers

1. Do you want to come out with our family?
2. We are going for a movie. Is she accompanying us?
3. She told me that I was talking too much.
4. You are a dishonest person.
5. The boss asked us for our opinions.
6. My friend told me that the red tie looks good on me.
7. You should not have fought with him.
8. It was the right thing to do.
9. The CEO said that it was a difficult situation to handle.
10. She has a softer attitude towards me. I have been her student for many years.