

Singular and Plural Pronouns

Let's Play

Read these sentences.

Nitin: I like to play football.

Hema: You can play with Jai and Anuj.

Nitin, can you get Smita along?

She and I will play in the park.

Nitin: I will bring my brother. He enjoys playing it too.

- Words like I, you, she, he, and it are used in the place of singular nouns.

- These are called pronouns.

Let's Play

Read these sentences.

Nitin: These are my friends. They like to play football.

Hema: Anuj and Jai , you can play football with Nitin.

Nitin, can you call Smita? We will play in the park.

Nitin: Sure!

- Words like they, we and you are used in the place of plural nouns.
- These are called plural pronouns.

Match the pronoun with the correct noun.

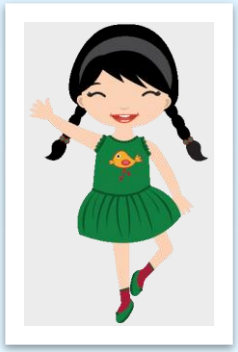
I

we

it

they

he



she

