Verbs

We play football.
I have a kite!
We build sandcastles.
She is laughing.
My friend has a balloon.

Verbs

Did you read the words in the picture carefully?

The words in yellow are called verbs.

- ✓ A verb talks about an action or denotes a state of being.
- ✓ It can also be used to show belonging.
- ✓ A sentence always contains at least one verb.

Verbs Describing Actions

Read these sentences.

- Mahima plays the flute.
- I visit my grandparents every summer.

The words plays and visit describe actions.

Verbs Denoting a State of Being

Read these sentences.

- My mother is a writer.
- I am a swimmer.
- Isha and Noor are sisters.

The words is, am and are tell us about a state of being.

Verbs Showing Possession

Read these sentences.

- I have a pet cat.
- My father has an old scooter.
- He had a blue umbrella last year. This year the has a green one.

The words has, have and had tell us what people own.

Let's Practise!

Underline the verbs in these sentences.

1. I like to sing and paint.
2. Mohit helps his mother make dinner.
3. Mother has a red bag.
4. My brother is a football player.
5. I am 7 years old.
6. We are nest friends.

