

Adjectives and Their Types

A. State whether the underlined adjectives in the following sentences are qualitative or quantitative:

1. Mother sent me out to buy four apples.

2. Riya wore a pink dress for her birthday.

3. The baby spilt little milk.

4. She made enough food for six people.

5. The new flyover is wide and clean.

B. Fill in the blanks with the correct interrogative adjective:

1. _____ is an encyclopedia?

2. _____ does your grandmother stay?

3. _____ phone were you using?

4. _____ house is yours?

5. _____ is the bride wearing?

Answers

A.

1. Mother sent me out to buy four apples.
Quantitative
2. Riya wore a pink dress for her birthday.
Qualitative
3. The baby spilt little milk.
Quantitative
4. She made enough food for six people.
Quantitative
5. The new flyover is wide and clean.
Qualitative

B.

1. What is an encyclopedia?
2. Where does your grandmother stay?
3. Whose phone were you using?
4. Which house is yours?
5. What is the bride wearing?