

Present Continuous Tense

Underline the present continuous form of verb in each of the following sentences.

1. Jasmine and I are going to watch a movie.
2. The Environment Club is organising a poster-making competition.
3. The school parliament is discussing the new schedule.
4. My parents are planning their annual trip.
5. Ankit is working on his new project.
6. Meenakshi is singing in front of the school.
7. Gaurav is wearing his snow boots.
8. It is raining outside.
9. Preeti is talking on the phone.
10. The children are shouting gleefully.
11. Listen to Shivank, he is suggesting the right thing.
12. Everyone quiet! Kanika is playing the piano.
13. Sanjay is driving to the airport to drop his wife.
14. Kajal is scolding her children.
15. The baby is crying very loudly.

Answers

Underline the present continuous form of verb in each of the following sentences.

1. Jasmine and I are going to watch a movie.
2. The Environment Club is organising a poster-making competition.
3. The school parliament is discussing the new schedule.
4. My parents are planning their annual trip.
5. Ankit is working on his new project.
6. Meenakshi is singing in front of the school.
7. Gaurav is wearing his snow boots.
8. It is raining outside.
9. Preeti is talking on the phone.
10. The children are shouting gleefully.
11. Listen to Shivank, he is suggesting the right thing.
12. Everyone quiet! Kanika is playing the piano.
13. Sanjay is driving to the airport to drop his wife.
14. Kajal is scolding her children.
15. The baby is crying very loudly.