

Subject-Verb Agreement

Use the appropriate form of the verb given in brackets.

1. Kim (speak/speaks) too loudly.
2. Anil (drive/drives) a taxi.
3. Neither of the boys (is/are) here.
4. One hundred rupees (is/are) not a lot of money.
5. The Major and his wife (was/were) the guests of honour.
6. She (don't/doesn't) look well today.
7. Neither Shreya nor Saksham (know/knows) the answer.
8. A swarm of bees (gather/gathers) nectar from the garden.
9. The crowd (is/are) eagerly waiting for the band.
10. The internet server (is/are) disconnected.
11. Mehul and I (are/is) participating in a dance competition.
12. Sneha's family (is/are) going for a vacation.
13. Their dogs (are/is) very disciplined.
14. The group of tourists (was/were) misguided.
15. I (am/are) sick.

Answers

Use the appropriate form of the verb given in brackets.

1. Kim speaks too loudly.
2. Anil drives a taxi.
3. Neither of the boys is here.
4. One hundred rupees is not a lot of money.
5. The Major and his wife were the guests of honour.
6. She doesn't look well today.
7. Neither Shreya nor Saksham knows the answer.
8. A swarm of bees gathers nectar from the garden.
9. The crowd is eagerly waiting for the band.
10. The internet server is disconnected.
11. Mehul and I are participating in a dance competition.
12. Sneha's family is going for a vacation.
13. Their dogs are very disciplined.
14. The group of tourists was misguided.
15. I am sick.