SUBJECT AND OBJECT PRONOUNS

Subject Pronouns

Subject pronouns do the work of a subject in a sentence. They are used instead of the person(s) or thing(s) doing the action.

I, you, he, she, it, we and they

Example: Elsie came yesterday. She will stay with us this week.

Here, ‘Elsie’ is the subject, noun and the doer of an action.

‘She’ is used instead of Elsie, so ‘she’ is the subject pronoun.

Object Pronouns

Object pronouns are used in place of the person(s) or thing(s) that receive the action of the verb.

me, him, her, it, you, them and us

Example: The teacher asked me to meet her after school.

The pronoun ‘her’ is the receiver of the action of the verb, so it is the object pronoun.
