

Prepositions

Identify the types of prepositions.

1. I always wake up at 6 a.m.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
2. She went to the library.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
3. Let's meet at lunch time and discuss the project.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
4. The frog leaped across the puddle.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement

5. I've been living in Delhi since January.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
6. There is a cat under the table.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
7. That dog is walking towards us.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
8. Please bring me the book kept on the table.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
9. I will meet you after the show.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement
10. She is in her room.
 - preposition of place
 - preposition of time
 - preposition of movement

Answers

1. I always wake up at 6 a.m. (preposition of time)
2. She went to the library. (preposition of place)
3. Let's meet at lunch time and discuss the project. (preposition of time)
4. The frog leaped across the puddle. (preposition of movement)
5. I've been living in Delhi since January. (preposition of time)
6. There is a cat under the table. (preposition of place)
7. That dog is walking towards us. (preposition of movement)
8. Please bring me the book kept on the table. (preposition of place)
9. I will meet you after the show. (preposition of time)
10. She is in her room. (preposition of place)