

Active and Passive Voice

Transform the given sentences. Choose your answer from the given options.

1. I know her.
 - a. She is known to me.
 - b. She is my known.
 - c. He knows her.
2. We were received by the principal of the host school.
 - a. The host school was received by the principal.
 - b. The principal of the host school received us.
 - c. The host school received our principal.
3. The drake chased the duckling.
 - a. The duckling chased the drake.
 - b. The drake was chased by the duckling.
 - c. The duckling was chased by the drake.
4. The gardener planted the flowers.
 - a. The flowers planted the gardener.
 - b. The flowers were planted by the gardener.
 - c. The gardener flowered the plants.
5. My mother cooks tasty meals every day.
 - a. My mother cooks very tasty meals every day.
 - b. Tasty meals are cooked by mother every day.
 - c. Very tasty meals are cooked by everyday mother.

Answers

1. I know her.
 - a. She is known to me.
 - b. She is my known.
 - c. He knows her.
2. We were received by the principal of the host school.
 - a. The host school was received by the principal.
 - b. The principal of the host school received us.
 - c. The host school received our principal.
3. The drake chased the duckling.
 - a. The duckling chased the drake.
 - b. The drake was chased by the duckling.
 - c. The duckling was chased by the drake.
4. The gardener planted the flowers.
 - a. The flowers planted the gardener.
 - b. The flowers were planted by the gardener.
 - c. The gardener flowered the plants.
5. My mother cooks tasty meals every day.
 - a. My mother cooks very tasty meals every day.
 - b. Tasty meals are cooked by mother every day.
 - c. Very tasty meals are cooked by everyday mother.