

Subject-verb Agreement

Choose the correct form of the verb given in brackets.

1. Neither answer (is, are) acceptable.
2. Nobody (know, knows) the tough times I've seen.
3. (Is, Are) the concert at five or six?
4. Mathematics (is, are) my favourite subject, while civics (is, are) Anand's favourite subject.
5. Eight dollars (is, are) the price of a ticket now.
6. (Is, Are) the scissors in this drawer?
7. There (was, were) fifteen candies in that bag.
8. The committee (debates, debate) these points carefully.
9. Saksham and Shashank (doesn't/don't) do their work neatly.
10. The ant, though small, (works/ work) hard all day.

Answers

1. Neither answer is acceptable.
2. Nobody knows the tough times I've seen.
3. Is the concert at five or six?
4. Mathematics is my favourite subject, while civics is Anand's favourite subject.
5. Eight dollars is the price of a ticket now.
6. Are the scissors in this drawer?
7. There were fifteen candies in that bag.
8. The committee debates these points carefully.
9. Saksham and Shashank don't do their work neatly.
10. The ant, though small, works hard all day.