

Sentence and its Kinds

Rewrite these sentences as directed.

1. We can protect our environment by taking small steps.
(Change to interrogative sentence.)

2. We have won the match. (Change to exclamatory sentence.)

3. It is important to protect our water bodies.
(Change to interrogative sentence.)

4. Oh! What a beautiful sight! (Change to declarative sentence.)

5. Can you write this again? (Change to imperative sentence.)

6. It is a beautiful rose. (Change to exclamatory sentence.)

7. I am not going to the temple. (Change to interrogative.)

8. Mary is a good student. (Change to negative.)

9. Does Shruti play tennis? (Change to affirmative.)

10. The climb is very steep to the peak. (Change to exclamatory.)

Answers

1. Can we protect our environment by taking small steps?
2. Hurray! We have won the match!
3. Is it/Isn't it important to protect our water bodies?
4. It is a beautiful sight.
5. Write this again.
6. What a beautiful rose!
7. Are you going to the temple? / Am I not going to the temple?
8. Mary is not a good student
9. Shruti plays tennis.
10. What a steep climb to the peak!