

Commonly Confused Words

Complete the sentence-pairs with appropriate homophones. Use the pictures as clues.

1. Nobody _____ what our dog keeps thinking.
His _____ is always wet.

2. I had _____ candies in my pocket.
Nishant _____ two of them.

3. Trees look _____ during autumn.
We saw a mother _____ during the jungle safari.

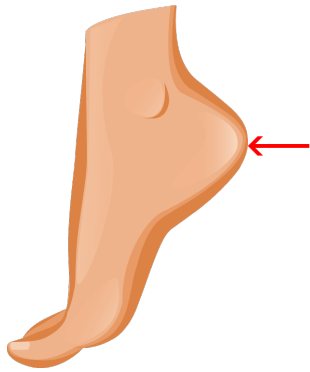

4. Humans have hands. Animals have _____.
There was a short _____ after she made the announcement.

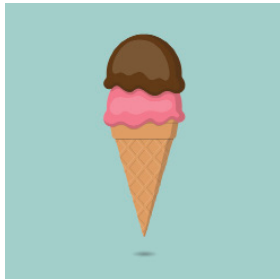

5. _____ be here in a few minutes.

My left _____ has developed rough cracks.

6. The Sahara is the largest sand _____ in the world

I would like to have an icecream for _____.

7. I will _____ a new camera for my birthday.

They will leave _____ 3 this evening.

8. Sheetal is a _____ friend of mine.

We watched silently as the _____ grazed grass in the distance.

Answers

1. Nobody knows what our dog keeps thinking.

His nose is always wet.

2. I had eight candies in my pocket.

Nishant ate two of them.

3. Trees look bare during autumn.

We saw a mother bear during the jungle safari.

4. Humans have hands. Animals have paws.

There was a short pause after she made the announcement.

5. He'll be here in a few minutes.

My left heel has developed rough cracks.

6. The Sahara is the largest sand desert in the world.

I would like to have an icecream for dessert.

7. I will buy a new camera for my birthday.

They will leave by 3 this evening.

8. Sheetal is a dear friend of mine.

We watched silently as the deer grazed grass in the distance.