

Adjective

Identify the type of adjective for each of the underlined words.

1. My father has bought a new car.
2. There aren't many people at the cinema.
3. Which sari do you want?
4. Ramesh is a clever boy.
5. All men are equal.
6. Here are some grapes.
7. Every word of her story is false.
8. Neither boy has done his homework.
9. That girl won the second prize.
10. There are tall trees on either side of the road.

Answers

1. My father has bought a new car.
my – possessive adjective
new – adjective of quality
2. There aren't' many people at the cinema.
many - adjective of quantity
3. Which sari do you want?
which – interrogative adjective
4. Ramesh is a clever boy.
clever – adjective of quality
5. All men are equal.
all – adjective of quantity
equal – adjective of quality
6. Here are some grapes.
some – adjective of quantity
7. Every word of her story is false.
every – distributive adjective
her – possessive adjective
8. Neither boy has done his homework.
neither – distributive adjective
his – possessive adjective
9. That girl won the second prize.
that – demonstrative adjective
10. There are tall trees on either side of the road.
either – distributive adjective