

Conjunctions

A. Join the sentences in column A with appropriate sentences in column B by using conjunctions.

A	B
1. We could not meet him.	Winter is approaching.
2. The weather is getting cold.	Her daughter sold them.
3. My father accompanied me to the station.	You can take the train back.
4. The old lady made the dolls.	It was late at night.
5. You can decide to stay overnight.	He stayed for a very short while.

B. Fill in the blanks with appropriate conjunctions to complete the sentences.

- _____ Jack _____ his sister will come to the party.
- _____ Mary had the money, she didn't want to buy the dress she wanted.
- I won't answer the phone _____ it keeps ringing constantly.
- The group packed enough food _____ they could eat whenever they wanted.
- My mother has asked me to take the pizza out of the oven _____ the timer goes off.
- Don't go too close to the forest _____ it is dangerous.
- You must continue taking your medicine _____ the doctor asks you to stop.
- I reached school before time _____ the gate was closed.
- I want to attend the concert, _____ the tickets are sold out.
- Sonia can _____ meet Ria today _____ next Monday.

Answers

A.

1. We could not meet him because/as he stayed for a very short while.
2. The weather is getting cold since winter is approaching.
3. My father accompanied me to the station because it was late at night.
4. The old lady made the dolls and her daughter sold them.
5. You can decide to stay overnight or you can take the train back.

B.

1. Both Jack and his sister will come to the party.
2. Although Mary had the money, she didn't want to buy the dress she wanted.
3. I won't answer the phone even if it keeps ringing constantly.
4. The group packed enough food so that they could eat whenever they wanted.
5. My mother has asked me to take the pizza out of the oven when the timer goes off.
6. Don't go too close to the forest because it is dangerous.
7. You must continue taking your medicine unless the doctor asks you to stop.
8. I reached school before time so the gate was closed.
9. I want to attend the concert, but the tickets are sold out.
10. Sonia can either meet Ria today or next Monday.