

Transformation of Sentences

A. Transform these sentences from affirmative to negative.

1. Anyone can do this.
2. There are many boys in our class.
3. We lost our way in the city.
4. Everybody knows you.
5. There is some water in the jug.
6. I think Deepak works too hard.
7. He woke up early today.

B. Transform these negative sentences to affirmative.

1. No one is absent today.
2. There was no one present who did not cry during the emotional scene.
3. He is so proud that he won't ask for help.
4. This kurta is so small that it won't fit me.
5. You are not a foolish person.
6. He didn't come to school today.
7. I didn't buy any books.

Answers

A.

1. There is no one who can't do this.
2. There are not many girls in our class.
3. We could not find our way in the city.
4. There is no one who doesn't know you.
5. There isn't a lot of water in the jug.
6. I don't think Deepak doesn't work too hard.
7. He did not wake up late today.

B.

1. Everyone is present today.
2. Everyone present cried during the emotional scene.
3. He is too proud to ask for help.
4. This kurta too small to fit me.
5. You are an intelligent/smart person.
6. He was absent from school today.
7. I bought some books.