

Using Has and Have

Read each pair of sentences. Tick the correct sentence and cross out the incorrect sentence.

1. The banyan tree have many branches.
The banyan tree has many branches.
2. My grandmother has a diamond necklace.
My grandmother have a diamond necklace.
3. I have a red hat.
I has a red hat.
4. The boys have a lot of homework to do.
The boys has a lot of homework to do.
5. The girls has brought their books.
The girls have brought their books.
6. Birds has wings and feathers.
Birds have wings and feathers.
7. Rohan and Sania have gone to the market.
Rohan and Sania has gone to the market.
8. Do you has a computer?
Do you have a computer?
9. We have a picture book.
We has a picture book.
10. She has won many awards.
She have won many awards.

Answers

1. The banyan tree has many branches.
2. My grandmother has a diamond necklace.
3. I have a red hat.
4. The boys have a lot of homework to do.
5. The girls have brought their books.
6. Birds have wings and feathers.
7. Rohan and Sania have gone to the market.
8. Do you have a computer?
9. We have a picture book.
10. She has won many awards.