

Adverbs and Their Types

Fill in the blanks with suitable adverbs from the box below.

excitedly finally slowly softly well quickly carelessly beautifully easily suddenly

1. Please come here _____. I need your presence just now.
2. I heard her talking _____ on the phone. So I know the details.
3. He _____ put the glass on the table. It fell to the floor.
4. Akshay is throwing a party on Sunday. He _____ finished his research.
5. Let's walk _____. I don't want to reach too soon.
6. He could _____ put the box up. It was too difficult for me to do so.
7. Everything happened so _____. We had to vacate at short notice.
8. She always talks so _____ that you can hardly hear her.
9. Although she studied day and night, she did not do _____ in the board exam.
10. Everyone who saw the house had a lot of praise for its beauty. Her new apartment was decorated _____.

Answers

1. Please come here quickly. I need your presence just now.
2. I heard her talking excitedly on the phone. So I know the details.
3. He carelessly put the glass on the table. It fell to the floor.
4. Akshay is throwing a party on Sunday. He finally finished his research.
5. Let's walk slowly. I don't want to reach too soon.
6. He could easily put the box up. It was too difficult for me to do so.
7. Everything happened so suddenly. We had to vacate at short notice.
8. She always talks so softly that you can hardly hear her.
9. Although she studied day and night, she did not do well in the board exam.
10. Everyone who saw the house had a lot of praise for its beauty. Her new apartment was decorated beautifully.