

Can, Should, May, Must

Choose the correct modal verb to complete each sentence.

1. Can/May you live without water for ten days?
2. Children must/can play for an hour every day.
3. My brother should/can do a cartwheel.
4. I should/may go to my uncle's place over the weekend.
5. We may not/must not lie.
6. Everyone should/can eat at least two fruits daily.
7. The weather forecast says it may/must rain today.
8. She cannot/should not come to my birthday party because she is going out of town.
9. My dog can/must not talk.
10. The electricity must/may be cut off for an hour today.

Answers

1. Can you live without water for ten days?
2. Children must play for an hour every day.
3. My brother can do a cartwheel.
4. I may go to my uncle's place over the weekend.
5. We must not lie.
6. Everyone should eat at least two fruits daily.
7. The weather forecast says it may rain today.
8. She cannot come to my birthday party because she is going out of town.
9. My dog cannot talk.
10. The electricity may be cut off for an hour today.