

Nouns and their Types

A. Underline the abstract nouns used in the following sentences.

1. 'Spread the light of knowledge through the world,' said grandmother to Kaveri.
2. The birds did not doubt the wisdom of the owl.
3. Swagata's happiness was visible on her face.
4. Our Constitution gives guidelines to ensure justice and equality for all.
5. Our struggle for freedom involved the sacrifice of many.

B. Find the countable and uncountable nouns in the following sentences. Write 'C' for countable and 'U' for uncountable nouns.

1. There is little sugar in the tea. _____
2. Many people came to the wedding. _____
3. There was much noise around the bazaar. _____
4. We had some cold coffee after dinner. _____
5. Some spoons were lying around the plates. _____

Answers

A. Underline the abstract nouns used in the following sentences.

1. 'Spread the light of knowledge through the world,' said grandmother to Kaveri.
2. The birds did not doubt the wisdom of the owl.
3. Swagata's happiness was visible on her face.
4. Our Constitution gives guidelines to ensure justice and equality for all.
5. Our struggle for freedom involved the sacrifice of many.

B. Find the countable and uncountable nouns in the following sentences. Write 'C' for countable and 'U' for uncountable nouns.

1. There is little sugar in the tea. U
2. Many people came to the wedding. C
3. There was much noise around the bazaar. U
4. We had some cold coffee after dinner. U
5. Some spoons were lying around the plates. C