

Verbs

Use the appropriate form of the verbs given in the brackets.

1. Yesterday, my mother and my sister _____ (watch) a movie.
2. Peter and John _____ (go) to the park every day to exercise.
3. His grandfather _____ (buy) him a chocolate every evening.
4. They _____ (be) good people.
5. There _____ (be) 365 days in a year.
6. One of my friends _____ (have) gone to London.
7. He and I _____ (be) at Cambridge together.
8. Each of them _____ (be) capable of winning the race.
9. Neither Rohit nor Seema _____ (be) responsible for this.
10. Slow and steady _____ (win) the race.

Answers

1. Yesterday, my mother and my sister watched a movie.
2. Peter and John go to the park every day to exercise.
3. His grandfather buys him a chocolate every evening.
4. They are good people.
5. There are 365 days in a year.
6. One of my friends has gone to London.
7. He and I were/are at Cambridge together.
8. Each of them is capable of winning the race.
9. Neither Rohit nor Seema is responsible for this.
10. Slow and steady wins the race.