

Singular and Plural Nouns

A. Rewrite the sentences by changing the singular nouns to the plural nouns.

1. We found a little kitten outside.
2. The teacher explained the concept to me slowly and kindly.
3. The child shouted in joy when she heard the doorbell ring.
4. The calf was sleeping peacefully in the shed.
5. The school is closed today for Gandhi Jayanti.

B. Rewrite the sentences by changing the plural nouns to the singular nouns.

1. Remove the cups and dishes from the table.
2. The doctors will attend the convention.
3. Monkeys came and destroyed the banana plants in the garden.
4. Mother! Look at those lilies.
5. The boys bought icecreams.

Answers

A.

1. We found little kittens outside.
2. The teachers explained the concepts to us slowly and kindly.
3. The children shouted in joy when they heard the doorbell ring.
4. The calves were sleeping peacefully in the shed.
5. The schools are closed today for Gandhi Jayanti.

B.

1. Remove the cup and dish from the table.
2. The doctor will attend the convention.
3. A monkey came and destroyed the banana plant in the garden.
4. Mother! Look at that lily.
5. The boy bought an icecream.