

Modals

1. Correct and rewrite the following sentences by using the appropriate modals.

- a. It is late; we would hurry up if we wish to catch the flight.
- b. Sweety can be in Jaipur today.
- c. You can stop when the signal turns red.
- d. It ought to rain tonight. Stay at home.
- e. There isn't any paper left for printing. We can buy some.
- f. They shall come in now. The punishment is over.

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct option.

- a. A wealthy man (must/would) help a poor person.
- b. (Might/May) I borrow your car today?
- c. (Could/Can) I have some more tea, please?
- d. (Oughtn't/ Wouldn't) you care for someone who helps you always?

Answers

1. Suggested Answers

- a. It is late; we must hurry up if we wish to catch the flight.
- b. Sweety might/ will be in Jaipur today.
- c. You should/ought to stop when the signal turns red.
- d. It might rain tonight. Stay at home.
- e. There isn't any paper left for printing. We need to/have to buy some.
- f. They may come in now. The punishment is over.

2.

- a. A wealthy man must help a poor person.
- b. May I borrow your car today?
- c. Could I have some more tea, please?
- d. Wouldn't you care for someone who helps you always?