

Active and Passive Voice

A. Change the voice.

1. Lata sang a melodious song.
2. The fly was eaten by the spider.
3. I called you many times.
4. My friend gifted me a designer pen.
5. The guard rang the bell.
6. Mr Shiva teaches us mathematics.
7. 'I forbid you from talking loudly in the library,' said the librarian.
8. Mr Raj built the theatre in 1967.
9. Mrs John bakes a cake every morning.
10. The Tower of London is visited by many tourists during summer.

B. Transform the given sentence. Choose your answer from the given options.

1. I know her.
 - a. She is known to me.
 - b. She is my known.
 - c. He knows her.
2. We were received by the principal of the school.
 - a. The school was received by the principal.
 - b. The principal of the school received us.
 - c. The school received our principal.

3. The dog chased the duckling.
 - a. The duckling chased the dog.
 - b. The dog was chased by the duckling.
 - c. The duckling was chased by the dog.
4. The gardener planted the flowers.
 - a. The flowers planted the gardener.
 - b. The flowers were planted by the gardener.
 - c. The gardener flowered the plants.
5. My mother cooks tasty meals every day.
 - a. My mother cooks very tasty meals every day.
 - b. Tasty meals are cooked by mother every day.
 - c. Very tasty meals are cooked by every day mother.

Answers

A.

1. A melodious song was sung by Lata.
2. The spider ate the fly.
3. You were called many times by me.
4. A designer pen was gifted to me by my friend.
5. The bell was rung by the guard.
6. Mathematics is taught to us by Mr Shiva.
7. 'You are forbidden from talking loudly in the library,' said the librarian.
8. The theatre was built by Mr Raj in 1967.
9. A cake is baked by Mrs John every morning.
10. Many tourists visit the Tower of London during summer.

B.

1. She is known to me.
2. The principal of the school received us.
3. The duckling was chased by the dog.
4. The flowers were planted by the gardener.
5. Tasty meals are cooked by my mother every day.