

Prepositions

A. Underline the preposition in the following sentences.

1. My friend was walking through the park when she twisted her ankle.
2. I went to the book fair with my cousin.
3. Rajesh and I met a long time ago.
4. Besides reading, Sonia likes singing and watching movies.
5. All preparations for the annual party were done by Karan.

B. Choose the correct preposition.

1. We stepped (at/onto) the train hurriedly.
2. My best friend sat (beside/besides) me in the train.
3. We got down (in/at) the last station.
4. From the station, we talked (towards/in) the market.
5. We walked (from/through) the market, looking for matching hats.

Answers

A.

1. My friend was walking through the park when she twisted her ankle.
2. I went to the book fair with my cousin.
3. Rajesh and I met a long time ago.
4. Besides reading, Sonia likes singing and watching movies.
5. All the preparations for the annual party were done by Karan.

B.

1. We stepped onto the train hurriedly.
2. My best friend sat beside me in the train.
3. We got down at the last station.
4. From the station, we talked towards the market.
5. We walked through the market, looking for matching hats.