

Adverbs

A. Fill in the blanks by choosing the correct adverb from the box:

enough    there    too    quite    briskly
soon    fairly    almost    rather    enough

1. Why are you leaving so _____? You must stay for a little longer.
2. There was just _____ water for the birds to drink.
3. Rama did _____ well in the exam.
4. Look over _____; the peacock is dancing.
5. Last night, I _____ fell off the bed.
6. Gagan is _____ stubborn to listen to anyone.
7. I did not enjoy the food. It was _____ bland.
8. She has _____ a pleasant personality. No wonder she gets along with everyone.
9. Vandana is smart _____ to find her way out.
10. Ajay walked _____ through the empty street.

B. Underline the adverbs in the following sentences:

1. The apple is too sour for anyone to eat.
2. There was hardly anyone in the theatre.
3. Lately, Nitin has been coming late every day.
4. Why is Arjun behaving so arrogantly?
5. Mayank was greatly impressed with his parents' business plan.

Answers

A.

1. Why are you leaving so soon? You must stay for a little longer.
2. There was just enough water for the birds to drink.
3. Rama did fairly well in the exam.
4. Look over there; the peacock is dancing.
5. Last night, I almost fell off the bed.
6. Gagan is too stubborn to listen to anyone.
7. I did not enjoy the food. It was rather/quite bland.
8. She has quite a pleasant personality. No wonder she gets along with everyone.
9. Vandana is smart enough to find her way out.
10. Ajay walked briskly through the empty street.

B.

1. The apple is too sour for anyone to eat.
2. There was hardly anyone in the theatre.
3. Lately, Nitin has been coming late every day.
4. Why is Arjun behaving so arrogantly?
5. Mayank was greatly impressed with his parents' business plan.