

Prepositions

Underline the prepositions in the following sentences and state their types.

1. After dinner, I went for a walk around the block.

2. My friend came to my house at noon.

3. I received your gift around noon today.

4. Pankaj has been sleeping since three hours.

5. We waited for my mother for three hours.

6. Don't drive through the busy market; take the alternate route.

7. Everyone is requested to sit beside their partners.

8. Lalit walked past my shop without waving at me.

9. Buzzo the dog is running around the tree.

10. Is there a pharmacy near your house?

11. The cat is hiding behind the sofa.

12. Can you check if my new bag is inside the cupboard?

13. Is it a good idea to hang the painting above the bed?

14. Aparna will meet me on Tuesday.

15. My father has asked me to come back home before midnight.

Answers

1. After dinner, I went for a walk around the block. Preposition of Place
2. My friend came to my house at noon. Preposition of Time
3. I received your gift around noon today. Preposition of Time
4. Pankaj has been sleeping since three hours. Preposition of Time
5. We waited for my mother for three hours. Preposition of Time
6. Don't drive through the busy market; take the alternate route.
Preposition of Direction
7. Everyone is requested to sit beside their partners. Preposition of Place
8. Lalit walked past my shop without waving at me. Preposition of Direction
9. Buzzo the dog is running around the tree. Preposition of Direction
10. Is there a pharmacy near your house? Preposition of Place
11. The cat is hiding behind the sofa. Preposition of Place
12. Can you check if my new bag is inside the cupboard? Preposition of Place
13. Is it a good idea to hang the painting above the bed? Preposition of Place
14. Aparna will meet me on Tuesday. Preposition of Time
15. My father has asked me to come back home before midnight.
Preposition of Time